

THE OFFICIAL CALL OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CONGREGATIONAL
CHRISTIAN CHURCHES
71st ANNUAL MEETING & CONFERENCE

All member churches of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches are notified and eagerly invited to attend the 71st Annual Meeting and Conference June 21-24, 2025, in St. Louis, Missouri. The theme of this year's conference is "Come and See" (John 1:46).

This year's AMC will take place at the Renaissance St. Louis Airport Hotel. It is conveniently located near the St. Louis airport, local attractions, and many restaurants. There is also the option of joining virtually if you are unable to attend in person.

The Rev. Joyce Acree and the Rev. Dr. Karen Robu lead the Host Committee with many individuals from churches throughout the country serving on sub-committees.

Our plenary sessions will be presented by the Rev. Dr. Lisa W. Davison from Phillips Theological Seminary in Tulsa, OK, who will speak about her book "More Than a Womb," as well as the Rev. Dr. Beth Bingham from the Congregational Church of the Chimes, Sherman Oaks, CA, and the Rev. Dr. Patrick Hunt of Heritage Congregational Church of Berea, Ohio, who will speak on the topic, "We Lift Our Eyes to Look at the Horizon."

Starting Saturday morning, there will be many exciting workshops with varied topics for you to explore.

On Sunday, we will worship, share communion, and gather for an Intergenerational Mission Project with NAPF and HOPE attendees.

Our business sessions will begin with a motivating time of prayer and song, followed by a presentation from the Sharing Vitality Grant recipients. Our conference room will adorn banners from NA churches as we conduct our business sessions. We look forward to presentations from our boards, councils, ministry teams, and missionaries. On Monday evening, we will gather for dinner and fellowship.

I look forward to seeing you in St. Louis or to having you join us virtually. We look forward to seeing God's love in action.

Blessings,
Jodee Lord
